Welcome to YOUR ONE STOP SHOP FOR ELECTION MATERIALS.

The Elections Team at Shaw's continues to supply comprehensive election materials and equipment to nearly all of the UK's local authorities.

In this, our equipment catalogue for 2024, you will find numerous products, large and small, that have been designed to make the administration of your elections and referendums as trouble-free as possible.

Our extensive product range has been developed over many years, in collaboration with the Association of Electoral Administrators, the Electoral Commission and the Cabinet Office. By combining our experience with insights from these organisations, we ensure that our product range is practical, useful and conforms with all relevant legislation and guidance.

This year Shaw's continue to support elections colleagues with the additional challenge of facilitating accessibility and inclusivity, and voter ID checks, in polling stations. On pages 20-21 you will find various items that you will need for accessibility purposes, and pages 8-10 for facilitating voter ID checks.

Please note that we welcome suggestions for additional products. In fact, many of our new products for this year have been added at customers' requests. Therefore if you have an idea for a product that will enhance the administration of your elections, please do get in touch.

Shaw's are aware of the multiple logistical challenges local authorities face when distributing voting booths to their respective polling stations and recognise that it is not always ideal to use a traditional wooden booth in all locations. We listened to the typical issues encountered by elections staff, and are delighted to offer our solution, the Shaw's VotePod® – an ingenious, compact, adaptable, portable and, above all, affordable voting booth which can be easily lifted and assembled by a single person.

Of contemporary design and robust structure, the VotePod® requires no tools or separate fixings for assembly, features a durable silver stoved enamel finish steel frame with detachable vinyl privacy screen and weighs under 15kg.

Its clever design ensures inclusivity as it features two writing surface levels and two shelves for use in two modes, either standard or accessible. Available to purchase in either standard or accessibility mode, the VotePod® can be easily converted into the other mode simply by changing the writing surface shelf.

Ideal for transport in most small cars, the VotePod® disengages easily into 5 smaller separate components (or 6 with the purchase of an additional shelf for use in both modes) and stores flat for ease of portability and storage.

IDCheckPod can be easily achieved simply by purchasing the modified wraparound vinyl and using with an existing Shaw's VotePod. Privacy Panel can be achieved by removing a shelf and configuring into an L shape.

See overleaf for full list of available accessories.

VOTER ID CHECK EQUIPMENT

There is now a requirement for polling stations to be suitably equipped for facilitating voter identification checks for UK general elections, English local elections, and police and crime commissioner elections in England and Wales. Shaw's are ready to support you in your preparations.

PRIVACY BOOTHS FOR IDENTITY CHECKING

Allow people who choose to cover their face in public the privacy to remove their face covering for the purpose of having their identity verified by an election official. Our appropriate and respectful solutions create a designated, discreet and private area within any polling station to facilitate such ID checks.

Designed and

Cardboard identity check privacy booth

An affordable solution in cardboard, our designs allow the identity of individuals to be checked by a single official at the polling station.

Each screen comes complete with perforated pop out section with finger hole for ease of removal, giving two options for use:

- 1) Remove the perforated pop out section using the finger hole and position screen to afford voter privacy from onlookers. The election official stands the other side of the viewing pane to be the single person to view the voter to check their ID once they have removed their face covering.
- 2) Do not remove the viewing pane (this will not be used). Position the screen such that the voter inside the screening will not be visible to other electors and polling station staff. The election official performing ID checks stands at the only open side of the screen. The voter turns around to face the single election official to have their ID checked once they have removed their face covering.

Heavy grade 4.5mm double core thick white cardboard construction.

Supplied in trifold format for self-assembly. Simply open side panels and position upright, then use tabs to secure the screen into square position.

Privacy panel room partition and privacy screen

Ref: VPP01

This L-shaped room partition and privacy screen offers a simple solution to facilitate ID checks.

Voters requesting privacy would be instructed to step behind the room divider/privacy screen with an election official, shielded from the eyeline of others by the screening, and remove their face covering for easy verification of the identity of the voter against the provided photographic ID.

The Privacy Panel is a compact, adaptable, portable and, above all, affordable screening solution which can be easily lifted and assembled by a single person. Perfect for use in most polling station layouts, the Privacy Panel creates a distinct separate private area suitable for the purpose.

Of contemporary design and robust structure, the Privacy Panel requires no tools or separate fixings for assembly, features a durable silver stoved enamel finish steel frame with detachable vinyl privacy screen and weighs under 15kg. Ideal for transport in most small cars, the Privacy Panel disengages easily into 4 smaller separate components and stores flat for ease of portability and storage.

This configuration can be easily achieved simply by removing the writing shelf from the Shaw's VotePod, making the metal framework multi purpose.

Accessories, including a storage and transportation bag, are also available.

IDCheckPod

Ref: IDCP01

A single booth unit with windowed wraparound vinyl privacy screen and rectangular structural shelf, the IDCheckPod allows the identity of individuals to be checked by a single official at the polling station. Voters requesting privacy would step into the privacy booth, and remove their face covering in front of a viewing pane in the rear of the IDCheckPod. The polling station staff member, from their position behind the viewing pane, can then easily verify the identity of the voter against the provided photographic ID, while the voter is shielded from the eyeline of others by the opaque side panels.

The IDCheckPod is an ingenious, compact, adaptable, portable and, above all, affordable booth which can be easily lifted and assembled by a single person. Perfect for use in most polling station layouts, the IDCheckPod offers a distinct separate private area suitable for the purpose, without sacrificing floor space.

Of contemporary design and robust structure, the IDCheckPod requires no tools or separate fixings for assembly, features a durable silver stoved enamel finish steel frame with detachable vinyl privacy screen and weighs under 15kg. Ideal for transport in most small cars, the IDCheckPod disengages easily into 5 smaller separate components and stores flat for ease of portability and storage. Accessories, including a storage and transportation bag, are also available.

IDCheckPod can be easily achieved simply by purchasing the modified wraparound vinyl and using with an existing Shaw's VotePod, making the metal framework multi purpose.

You may be surprised to learn that Shaw & Sons provide local authorities and other organisations with a secure system for the binding of meeting minutes and other important records.

For convenient long-term storage of loose documentation (such as your Register of Electors), we are able to fasten individual papers into book format and bind them into a hard-back case.

Our prices start from just £124.00 plus VAT for a single volume, full case-bound in a choice of coloured book cloth, including foil blocking of your council's details on the face and/or spine.

Please note:

- The maximum spine width of papers per volume can be no greater than 65mm. Spine widths greater than this value will need to be split into multiple volumes.
- Loose papers must be supplied in the order in which they are to be bound.
- Papers must be supplied without staples or paperclips.
- Each bundle of papers must be securely packed for transport in the sets to be bound.
- Each bundle must have a front sheet detailing the required bookcloth colour and the desired wording to be foiled on either the front or spine.
- Please note that the cost to collect one or two parcels is an additional £18.00 + VAT.
